5. Public Comment: None
6. Old Business – DISCUSSION of current membership of OLCC and adding new members, but no conclusion was reached.

G Gregory reported that Water Resources 101 was held Wednesday, February 22 at Old Lyme PGN Library. Denise Savageau of the CT River Conservancy covered topics important to shoreline towns such as Lyme and Old Lyme including: What watersheds are, and how groundwater & surface waters are connected. Attendees received handouts and water bottle thanks to CT Water. M Plumleigh posted the information to OL residents. - G Gregory

Old Lyme Events Magazine’s next deadline is April 4 - G Ryan

Nix the Knotweed plan for OLCC to participate will be arranged by H Lyman Amtrak’s Northeast Corridor and train bridge over CT River will disrupt travel through OL. Access for large trucks and for delivering materials will occur in several locations, i.e. Ferry Road, and Shore Road, as well as locations on Route 1 in Old Saybrook.
